SEPTEMBER/2011

Welcome to ECAA's E-Newsletter, The Spark!

This e-newsletter was created to keep members informed on the Association's activities and upcoming events in a timely manner.

President's Message

All right, in the last Spark I did ask for some summer weather, but that was for August not September now that we are all back at work and rolling up our sleeves. Most of the construction industry colleagues that I have talked to are as busy as they like to be, or busier. That is certainly the case with the projects my company has on the go. As you can tell by reading through this issue of the Spark, the calendars are really starting to fill up.

Clem
Gratton,
PEC

I would like to remind you how extremely important it is for you to make sure and attend your local ECAA Chapter meetings. I know that when the calendar gets a little jammed it is easy to say, well I can miss that dinner meeting, and maybe the next one, and so on it goes. Your chapter presidents and executives work very hard at planning and making sure that there are good speakers representing current issues and products. The committee chairs have been working right through the whole year, attending meetings and monitoring issues that their committee represents, then prepare reports to keep you informed of what is going on. The vendor and manufacturer representatives take the time to come out, again and again, to not only support our association, but to make themselves available to present new products and answer any questions that you might have. The networking and the questions that you ask the committee chairs when they present their reports are the issues and concerns that are heard and focused on. They are also the ones that are brought back to the Provincial ECAA Board of Directors to deal with. Without your participation at your Chapter meetings, the concerns and issues of only a few are heard. Please take the little time it takes to come out, be heard, participate, and support your Chapter executive, and your ECAA.

I look forward to meeting you at one of your chapter meetings this year.
Cheers.

Industry News

In 2010 the construction industry and STARS partnered with a shared mission of education, safety and saving lives, and created an annual fundraising gala. "Building Magic in the Air" gala is confirmed for October 29th at the Chateau Crowne Plaza. Tickets (limited to 500) available for purchase at $150 per ticket. Please support the gala by donating a prize item and/or purchasing tickets. Donations may include restaurant and hotel certificates, electronics, gift baskets, jewelry as well as other valued gift items. All gala prize donors will have their name included in the event program. (contact: Sali@stars.ca)

Continuing Education

Upcoming courses offered by ECAA.

Design Build (ECAA Office Edmonton), September 10th & 11th. There is still room in this very popular course.

Safety Principles (ECAA Office Edmonton), September 22nd & 23rd - Class Full. If you wish to put your name on a cancellation list please contact Brittany (bsmith@ecaa.ab.ca)

September 10 & 11, 2011 - Design Build (ECAA Office, Edmonton). Design-build has become a common place term in the engineering and construction industry in recent years and is prevalent for various building construction projects. The electrical contractor as a sub-trade is being asked to participate in the design build process. As a viable business opportunity, it is necessary for the electrical contractor to fully understand the concept of design build, organizational model, the laws and regulations pertaining to design build, design methods, estimating techniques and risk management. The course will help project managers, engineers, executive and owners of electrical contracting firms to address opportunities in design build and expand their market profitability.

September 22 & 23, 2011 - Safety Principals (ECAA Office, Edmonton). A well-developed safety program can reduce costs resulting from injury and property damage and in the hallmark of a quality electrical contracting firms. Follow the steps to develop and implement an effective safety program for small to medium sized electrical contracting firms. Second day is designed to help managers ensure construction supervisors fine-tune their safety skills by clearly understanding roles and responsibilities; presenting and delivering effective training to workers and maintaining high worksite safety standards; conducting effective site inspections and developing appropriate recommendations; understanding the steps to follow and processes involved when investigating accidents or incidents; understanding WCB legal responsibilities.

October 21 & 22, 2011 - Accounting Principles (Location TBA, Calgary). This course will introduce you to the terms and concepts of accounting and show you how to use them to attain goals and controls for future growth. You will learn practical skills to help you develop, interpret and use financial data, pin-point problem and profit areas, and focus your resources toward a successful electrical contracting business.

October 28 & 29, 2011 - Project Management (Carriage House Inn, Calgary). Increased competition is eroding profit margins across the board. To be successful in today's marketplace, electrical contractors need to work smarter - not harder. The Project Management course will teach you practical, hands-on skills to:

- identify and recover all costs to which you are entitled
- avoid paying for others' errors or omissions
- reduce project costs through effective purchasing and administration
- identify cost overruns - and take corrective action
- use effective record keeping systems to enhance project profitability

November 18 & 19, 2011 - Basic Electrical Estimating (BEE) (Carriage House, Calgary). For small contractors who are not ready to make the investment in a computerized estimating system.

Designed to teach new contractors the fundamentals of preparing an electrical estimate using the Elemental Format hands-on. The course will address material take-off, pricing of materials, labouring of materials using the NECA Manual of Labour Units, labour costs, special overheads, general overheads and profit/contingencies.

November 24 & 25, 2011 - Business & Public Relations (ECAA Office, Edmonton). A series of five modules designed to give you essential and proven management concepts in the areas of managing: Credit & Collections, Business Promotion, Sales Management, Business Management and Human Resource Management. Each module will teach you hands-on management strategies to immediately begin improving the performance and profitability of your electrical contracting business.

December 1 & 2, 2011 - Assessing & Finalizing The Tender (ECAA Office, Edmonton). is course for the Professional Electrical Contractor courses covers organizing the estimate, finalizing the tender, and computer aid in estimating and finalizing the tender. Since the course is aimed at Professional Electrical Contractors, very little time is spent on basic take-offs. The course addresses calculations of various overheads, mark-up theories, labor factors, evaluating risk factors, and the like, all concerns that the active business manager meets up with every day. These three parts of this course are designed to create an awareness in the Professional Electrical Contractor of the various business principles involved in preparing his or her tenders.

Registration on-line at www.ecaa.ab.ca or through ecaa@ecaa.ab.ca. Available through ECAA. ELECTRICAL SAFETY TRAINING SYSTEM (ESTS) is a computer based, distance delivered program that recognizes Provincial & Federal Occupational Health & Safety Regulations. The program promotes a "Plan, Do, Check, Act" philosophy applying CSA Z462, based on CSA Z1000 Occupational Health & Safety Management System Standard. Course is complimentary to all unionized electrical contractors and their employees that have a bargaining relationship with the IBEW Local 424. Contact Christine chryniw@ecaa.ab.ca to sign up.
